Profile

A Full-Stack Developer based in Lisbon, Portugal. I am specialize in WordPress development (both front-end and back-end), along with modern JavaScript frameworks like React.js and Vue.js. I'm passionate about turning design files into responsive, high-performance websites and building dynamic, data-driven web applications. Whether you need custom WordPress themes, plugins, or interactive web apps, I have the skills to create solutions that are scalable, efficient, and user-friendly. My goal is to bring your ideas to life through clean, optimized code.
